WADSWORTH

Word has been received of the safe arrival overseas of Ivan Ault.

Mrs. Theresa Latsch, formerly a dressmaker in Wadsworth, was recently married to Michael Latsch, the ceremony being performed at Akron, where the couple will reside.

The wife of Chas. Neville has been notified of the serious illness of the latter from pneumonia at Camp Custer, Mich. He left Wadsworth three weeks ago.

Harlo Miller, son of Alvin Miller, who formerly resided on the town line, died late Thursday afternoon of last week at the Akron City hospital of typhoid fever after an illness of 21 days. He was an electrician at the Firestone rubber plant, was about 23 years old and is survived by a wife and one child.

George Bolch, one of Wadsworth's youngest soldiers, has arrived safely overseas, and in two letters written from Eastleigh, England, on Sept. 7 and 9, expresses his delight with the country. He describes the scenery as being beautiful and mentions especially the wonderful holly and spruce trees. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bolch.

Mrs. Anna M. Hoch, 83, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Wertman, in Barberton, Wednesday, death being due to exhaustion. She was a sister of Mrs. J. E. Smoyer of this place. Another sister, Mrs. C. A. Holloway, died just a month ago in Akron. Funeral services for Mrs. Hoch were held from the Lutheran church at Loyal Oak, on Friday at 2 p. m., Rev. B. L. Westenbarger officiating.

Several very interesting war films shown. After this part of the program, Rev. Courtney took charge of the meeting and suggested that the crowd buy fifty thousand dollars worth of bonds right then and there to show their appreciation to the speaker and sextet. And did they do it? They not only came up to the fifty thousand mark, but passed it by a couple of hundred dollars. That's Lodi's answer to the Kaiser's peace bid.

Reed Barnhart had the misfortune to again break his leg, which has now been broken three times in the same place within a short period of time. He was thrown from a horse this time, the other breaks having occurred in motorcycle accidents. He has the sympathy of his friends.

Lieut. Ralph Grannis sent his parents a German helmet which was picked up near young Roosevelt's grave.

I. J. Betz lost a valuable diamond ring in town last week.

Lieut. Dean at Camp Sherman is reported to be very ill with Spanish flu.

The Spanish influenza epidemic which is sweeping the country, has not touched Lodi to any great extent as yet. However, we now have three cases under quarantine, all in one family.

Is Lodi going over the top in the fourth Liberty Loan drive? Of course it is. There is no doubt of that in the minds of any who were so fortunate as to be at the big, enthusiastic meeting, held at the Lodi theater, Tuesday night. The famous camp Sherman sextet was there to stir up enthusiasm with their songs, and Dr. A. F. Lowe, former rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church in Buffalo, who has been at the front with the French and American Y. M. C. A., told his experiences while over there. Then there were ating. Interment was made at Loyal Oak.

Charles Wright, brother of W. H. Wright of Wadsworth, was fatally injured on Friday, Sept. 27, while cutting timber near Rittman, O. A huge limb struck him on the head, fracturing the skull. The deceased was 47 and is survived by the widow and seven children. Funeral services were held from the Rittman U. B. church and burial made in Knupp's cemetery.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Freeborn was celebrated on Tuesday evening, Oct. 1, at their home here, 150 relatives and friends being present. Wm. Freeborn and Emma S. Eyles were married on Oct. 1, 1868, Rev. Lathrop Cooley of Cleveland, officiating. The ceremony took place on the farm one and one-half miles northeast of town, which is now owned by Mr. Freeborn. The couple have resided in the vicinity of Wadsworth ever since their marriage.

Two of the wedding guests were present at the golden wedding—Bert Freeborn and Ed. McGalliard, both of Akron. All the other witnesses to the ceremony have passed beyond.

Dr. H. A. Baldwin was slightly injured and his auto was badly smashed on Tuesday of last week here, when run into by a car driven by Joe Troha, a Barberton saloon-keeper.
